Writing skills: Metaphors

A metaphor compares two things by saying one thing is the other.

Example: My little sister is an angel.
My little sister is not actually an angel – the metaphor shows she is sweet and good.

A Explain the metaphors.

1. 'The wrestler is a mountain' means the wrestler is big and solid.
2. 'My brother is a demon' means _____.
3. 'A good book is a holiday' means _____.
4. 'The sky was in a bad mood' means _____.
5. 'John is a cheetah' means _____.
6. 'Your bedroom is a dump' means _____.
7. 'The monster's teeth were knives' means _____.

B Rewrite the sentences using metaphors.

1. The clouds were white and fluffy. The clouds were cotton wool.
2. His eyes were red and angry. His eyes were _____.
3. The house was huge and luxurious. The house was _____.
4. The car was really fast. The car was _____.
5. The floor was covered in water. The floor was _____.
6. The hospital was impossible to escape from. The hospital was _____.
7. Her eyes were bright and sparkly. Her eyes were _____.

C Write a poem full of metaphors.

1. Think of something you really dislike. You could choose washing the dishes, cold weather or a particular food.
2. Think up some unpleasant or horrible metaphors for your chosen thing.
3. You could even try to make your poem rhyme.

Example:

Washing the dishes is losing your keys.
Washing the dishes is smelling of cheese.
Washing the dishes is catching a cold.
Washing the dishes is waking up old.
