

The Bouncing Castle

‘Wow!’ said Jenny, as she ran out into the garden.

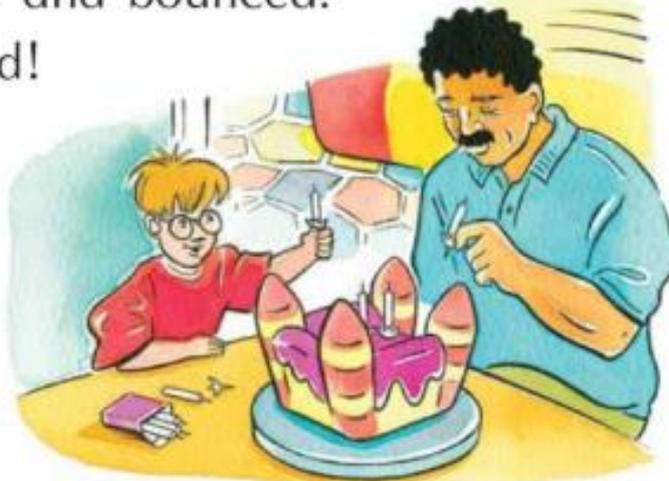

She climbed up on to the castle and she began to bounce.

She bounced and bounced.

Then her friends came and they all climbed up on the castle too.

And they bounced and bounced.

What fun they had!

Why were the children sad when the fun fair was leaving?

1. What did Jenny do when she climbed on to the castle?

2. Who was bouncing on the castle with Jenny?

Then the children had a party in the garden.
There was ice-cream, orange and a big birthday cake.

Jenny blew out all the candles on the cake.

‘This is a great party,’ she said to Daddy,
‘and it is the best birthday I ever had.

I just love the bouncing castle.’

And they all climbed up on the castle again.

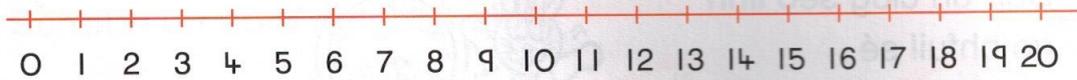

3. Where did the children have their party?

4. What food and drink was on the table?

Draw a picture of you at your best birthday ever.
